OFFICE HOURS:—9 to 11 A. M. to 3 P. M.

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.
 —More earthquakes in Turkey.
 —Peter Vausickie was in the city yesterday.
 —Miss Edith White is Postmistress pro tem of Carson.
 —FOR SALE.—A first class square piano. Inquire at this office.
 —Sheridan, the tragedian, died in Sydney, Australia, May 18th.
 —A New York sugar refinery burned yesterday. Loss, $1,000,000.
 —H. M. Yerington and wife returned from San Francisco yesterday.
 —Betting is about even on the result of the big Base Ball game today.
 —Wells Drury, pro tem, statesman and dull thuddist, is subbing in the Republican office, Denver.
 —FOR SALE.—A large roomy residence in the Western part of the city. Fine location. Apply at this office.

—About all the young folks and a good many old ones went to Bowers' Mansion yesterday. The town seemed depopulated.

—The Board of Regents have taken up the option secured two years from J. N. Evans, of the ten additional acres for University purposes, at the option price of $150 per acre.

—Vinegar is better than ice for keeping fish. By putting a little vinegar on the fish it will keep perfectly well even in very hot weather. Fish is often improved in flavor under this treatment.

—The Chinese of California are going East in large numbers. The Eastern people want them and the California people don't. The Chinaman shows good sense in changing his place of abode.

—A large car load of people went through Reno yesterday and was supposed to be an excursion party going to see the wonders of California, but it turned out to be only another installment of Blythe's heirs en route from the East to take a whack at the estate. The lawyers went by way of the Southern Pacific so as to divide the railway patronage.

—A lady employed in the Treasury Department has been the victim of superstition. Three times she acted as substitute for sick clerks, and every time the patient died. At last the clerks all boycotted her, and when they were compelled to be absent, would request that somebody else be appointed to represent them. The victim has now been given a steady place of her own.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
 When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
 When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
 When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A New Nevada Incorporation.

The Found Treasure Mining Company has been incorporated in San Francisco, to operate in the county of Elko. The incorporators are Charles H. Fish, of San Rafael; Thomas Brown and A. J. Ralston, of San Francisco; W. H. Ennor, of Tuscarora, Elko county, Nevada, and D. L. Bliss, of Carson, Ormsby county. The capital stock is $10,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares.

Whites vs. Blacks.

Senator Williams while away from Carson travelled a good deal in the South. He said to the writer yesterday: "There are now very little politics in the South. The issue is simply the whites against the blacks. If I lived there I would be a white man and so would you."

Opens Today.

Mr. Bryan who is an old experienced caterer, opens Sweeney's restaurant this morning. He proposes to make it what it used to be in its palmy days and furnish a variety at the table that will satisfy all who eat there. See announcement in the advertising columns.

The Frozen Truth.

The Chronicle reports the finding of a salamander which was placed inside a stove in Virginia City to test its powers. In a few minutes the fire went out and the reptile was covered with icicles. These are the cold facts of the case.

SHAW'S SPRINGS.

A Chance of Having Them in Town.

Mr. Shaw is hard at work on his warm springs and the work is eagerly watched by the people of Carson.

His theory of the falling off of the water is that the bottom of the rocky reservoir being heated for years by the water became slacked like lime and was much more easily cracked by the shock. These cracks let the water off into the sand in a Southwesterly direction. By picking out the rock he has found water in several places, clear and hot, and in each place it stands at the same level. He proposes now to run a trench below the flow and stop it. It can then easily be pumped into the bath houses, a raise of one foot will be sufficient. He also has another project which is better still. His idea is to pipe the water into town, and establish bath houses in the center of the city. The level of Main street at the Capitol is fifty feet lower than the spring, so that the water will run into the city without pumping. As it comes out of the earth it registers 120 degrees, and it is estimated that it will be 100 degrees when it reaches Carson which would be quite hot enough for all practical purposes. A hot bath house in the city would pay fifty per cent. more than one outside the city limits.

The School Picnic.

Yesterday was a fine day for the picnic, and a very large crowd gathered at Bowers' Mansion.

The football game was won by a Virginia team, the Carson boys not competing.

Miss Coronado, of Empire, came in first in the race.

The boys' race was won by a Virginia boy.

The baseball game was easily won by John Wright's club, of this city, by 11 to 6.

Starke, of Virginia, captured the prize in the glass ball match.

The prize for dancing was awarded to a Virginia couple.

A boy had his foot badly cut on a piece of glass; otherwise there were no casualties, and everything passed off in an orderly and quiet manner.

Thought He Had His Clothes On.

In the room of an unmarried gentleman of Genoa Friday morning's earthquake knocked down books and bottles, the furniture danced, the windows rattled, and the walls groaned and made noise enough to frighten the rats out of a cow barn. When the quake came the gentleman was sound asleep. He jumped from the bed to the washstand with one bound, and seized a match, and in less than a second blood was flowing from a scratch on his person something less than two feet in length. He thought he had his clothes on.—Courier.

Arrested for Housebreaking.

Yesterday a colored man named Wm. Henderson was arrested for housebreaking. It appears that he had been boarding some horses and keeping a wagon at Carney's hay yard and the outfit had been retained by Carney to satisfy the debt. Henderson went to the yard, forced the hinges off a stable door and took his horses. Hence the arrest. It is thought that the matter will be compromised. Henderson did not know that he was breaking a law but took the horses because he had been induced to do so by poor advisers.

Good Hop Land.

Some weeks ago the APPEAL mentioned the soil of Nevada as excellent for hops. Since the above was published a vine growing in the back yard of Mr. Jacobs has scaled the fence, gone over the back steps and entered the APPEAL office through a crack in the wall. It is now making about a foot a day and unless cut down or stopped, it will climb all over the job office and stop work. The vine must be already over 60 feet long and has several months yet in which to grow.

Death of Bishop Stevens.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—William Bacon Stevens, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania of the Protestant Episcopal Church, died this morning.

—Reno proposes to have an artesian well boom in order to get pure water. The city water is reported unfit to drink.

ANNEXATION.

It is Frowned Upon by Justice Witherell.

The man that officer Farlong brought into Justice Witherell's court yesterday had every appearance of being a tramp which had been dropped off the break beam at Reno under the Inter-State Commerce bill. He had four different sizes of wearing apparel and before he came up here had been sleeping in an old barn in Thompson's addition. He was charged with stealing a coat belonging to Patsey Gallagher, a man engaged to keep the floor tidy in Sweeney's saloon.

"Any remarks to make?" asked the Court. "How did you get the coat?"

"Annexed it."

"What's that?"

"Just a little annexation scheme of mine. The coat seemed lonely where it was and hankering for annexation with me. We were both unanimous and so we annexed."

"Yes, yes, I see. Mr. Constable, please annex the prisoner to the county jail for sixty days."

POLITICAL.

—Prohibition is expected to carry all the counties in Dakota outside the Black Hills next Fall.

—Ex-Congressman Converse is the Standard Oil candidate for the next Democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio.

—It is said that the town of Clinton Ky., has been made Republican by the residence of several New England school teachers.

—Under the Democratic rule of no third term, a majority of the State officers to be nominated in New York this year will have to be new men.

—The "Bob" Lincoln boom is rapidly spreading among the Republicans of the South. The colored people are especially enthusiastic. —Detroit Tribune.

—There is now only one Republican internal revenue collector remaining. He holds the Second District in New York city and a Tammany brave is after his scalp.

—Cleveland, one of the few large cities that did not have an organized Labor party at the municipal elections in the Spring, will have one for the Legislative contest this Fall.

—The closeness of the vote in West Virginia makes both parties eager to consolidate their organizations and heal whatever divisions resulted from the recent Senatorial contest.

—The Irving Hall Executive Committee is very much displeased with Mayor Hewitt because of his action in enforcing the Sunday law. The real business is that he will not give its leaders office.

—The leaders of the Labor party in Kentucky attend the meetings of Republican candidate Bradley, and the inference is that they will throw their influence in favor of his election to the Governorship.

—According to a Richmond dispatch to the New York Tribune, in the county elections in Virginia colored men voted with the Democrats in some of the outer counties and the Republican party gained many white votes.

—In this State females do not have to pay taxes or register in order to vote in school meetings; but not one in a hundred goes near the ballot box, and the few that do deposit tickets bearing the name of the sterner sex.—Manchester N. H. Mirror.

—The National Tribune, organ of the Grand Army of the Republic, says that of the 350,000 members of the organization about 75 per cent are Republicans, but that in Indiana and New Jersey the Democrats constitute nearly 50 per cent, and in the State of Delaware they make about 75 per cent.

—John Swinton says that the new Union Labor party is most likely to have a show of success in Kansas, "where it is spreading with magical rapidity." Heavy votes are also promised in Nebraska, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio. He says nothing of New York where Henry George puts his hopes.

—The Washoes and Piutes object to being herded together in the same school-room in case the Indian school is built. They seem to have the same race prejudice against each other as whites have regarding negroes and do not propose to have their children mingle,
